Another large contingent of Canadians arrived in England this week. They included both army and airforce men.

A Beaver Mines man took a truckload of "hogs" to Calgary last week. As far as we can learn, Blairmore's stock of that stuff remains intact.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Vroom, of Beaver Mines, are visiting their daughter in California. They journeyed south before Christmas by auto.

The people all expect to pay taxes and more taxes, all for the cause; but they resent nuisance taxes. They should have the option of paying in a lump sum, and not have to tick stamps every week, as in the case of the Unemployment Insurance Act. —Pincher Creek Echo.

It is time the Social Credit element in Alberta got busy and see to it that Premier Aberhart's salary is boosted to such a point that it will not be necessary for him to dress in gunny-sacking and feed on gophers and magpies. No man can live in luxury on a salary of $10,000 a year or less.

Recent reports on National Salvage work include the collection of five tons of bones on a December Saturday by the Boy Scouts at Amherst, N.S. Fifty thousand medicine bottles were collected by the Scouts of Toronto during December and turned over to the R.C.A.M.C. medical stores.

RED CROSS ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Blairmore Branch of the Canadian Red Cross was held in the Sartoris' hall on Monday night of this week. A full report of the year's activities of the branch will appear in our next issue. "V"

ONLY A DOMINION

INCOME TAX FOR 1941

The provinces will not call for certain income and corporation tax returns this year, in view of the expected transfer of certain tax rights to Ottawa for the duration of the war. In a statement issued by Premier Aberhart, it was explained that "under the agreement proposed by the Dominion government the province is required to forego the collection of taxes payable under the Alberta Corporation Taxation Act." He added that the legislature would consider the agreement at the next session, and that in the event of approval, Albertans would not be liable to pay the taxes to Alberta. "V"

J. W. Cooklin, Brantford, Ontario, pioneer western showman, presented a cheque for $500 to the Western Canada Association of Exhibitors to form the nucleus of a war fund.

Ten Nazi-dominated countries now have trades unions in Great Britain carrying on with the co-operation of the British Trades Union Congress and numbering in membership tens of thousands of workers.

The marriage took place recently of Lillian, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gamache, of Pincher Creek district; to George Arthur Nichols, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Nichols, of Vancouver.

Tomorrow's weather forecast is indicated by the dress of a well known male citizen of Blairmore. His clothes can change just as quickly as the weather, so sell your thermometer for what you can get for 'em.

As far as we can learn, there are as many commissioners for oats in Alberta as there are in Manitoba, Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick, P.E.I. and Nova Scotia. Of course, we have more reasons for swearing in Alberta.

Arrangements are already being made in Alberta for a suitable ceremony for Adolf Hitler. We have lots of timber here to produce the necessary fire—and won't it be a most grand and glorious feelin'? Too bad Sir Harry Lauder couldn't be here to lead us in the singing!

R. Lynch-Staunton and son were in town yesterday from Todd Creek district. We understand that in a few months from now Mr. Lynch-Staunton will be celebrating the 60th anniversary of his arrival in Alberta. He landed in Medicine Hat with the C.P.R. construction crew 60 years ago, and has been a resident of the Lumber district for more than 40 years. He is looking quite pale and heavy, and is a real going concern yet.

UNITED CHURCH ANNUAL CONGREGATIONAL MEETING

The annual congregational meeting of Central United church was held in the auditorium on Thursday evening last. A short service preceded the portion, conducted by the minister, Rev. E. B. Arrol, B.A.

The secretary, Mr. Harmer, in presenting the financial statement for 1941, stated that all obligations had been met, and that the allocation for the Missionary Fund had been exceeded by a few dollars. Necessary repairs were made to the church belfry, and the chimney was rebuilt on a larger scale.

The church has a very active Ladies' Aid Society. For many years excellent work was accomplished under the leadership of Mrs. C. Fraser. At the annual meeting of the Aid held in December, Mrs. Fraser resigned from the presidency and was succeeded by Mrs. Harry Moore, who is proving herself a worthy successor. During the year the society raised $888.22. Splendid reports were received from the Sunday schools and other auxiliaries. The church has four C.G.I.T. groups, all contributing in some measure and in various ways to Canada's war effort. There are two boys' groups, Trail Rangers and Explorers, with mentors Alfred McKay and Roland Pinkney, respectively.

The minister expressed his sincere appreciation of the excellent services rendered by the secretary, the various church boards, the Ladies' Aid, group leaders, Sunday school teachers, the leader of the choir and orchestra, Mr. Upton, and the organist, Miss Georgeette Dau.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies, and a happy time of fellowship was enjoyed. "V"

Sergt. Heywood and Private Morris were down from Calgary during the week endeavoring to recruit bushmen. We understand they were fairly successful, securing one or two from the Fernie-Michell district, one from Coleman, one from Bellevue, and possibly one from Hillcrest.

THERE ARE NO SIDELINES NOW

The entry of Japan into the war has brought more Canadians to the realization of the warning which people of this country have had for two years—that nothing short of total war effort in Canada will be good enough to defeat the foes of free people. Now that Canada's western coast line is actually part of the battle front and now that we have the spectacle of unbounded energy set loose in the United States, there can be few people left in Canada who do not grasp the truth that no one in the country can escape some contribution to an all-out war effort.

Sometimes it is easier to do the spectacular thing than it is to carry out the drab duty. Workmen in factories can be carried on to almost superhuman effort by the definite knowledge that their handiwork is needed desperately by the boys who man the guns. Sailors, soldiers and airmen can rise to heights of heroism, knowing that the very existence of their country depends on them. But it can be harder for the civilian left at home to realize that his job is just as vital in its way as that of the war factory worker is, as that of the youth in the armed forces. Yet that is true. Canada cannot supply the ships and gunnery and planes and ammunition unless her citizens provide the money.

The issue of bonds being offered next month will meet people who are in a new mood. The man or woman who was satisfied to buy a hundred-dollar bond last June will likely feel the need to buy five hundred dollars worth or more. Few will limit their purchase of bonds now that the enemy is on Canada's doorstep.

COWLEY HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Harry Gunn has returned from a visit to Calgary.

We regret to learn that Orin Burkhardt is a patient in the St. Vincent's hospital at Pincher Creek.

Bobby Cochran has gone to Calgary, where he enters the youth training plan.

One very windy morning when the wind was changing hands, the teacher asked little Mary, "If your father mind losing his soil, "Oh, no," said the child, "father has lots of land."

After a lingering illness, Mrs. T. Wright, of Porcupine Hills district, died Wednesday night in St. Vincent's hospital at Pincher Creek. Funeral will be held here on Saturday afternoon.

A card party in aid of the Red Cross will be held here next Wednesday evening. Everybody will be welcome. A dance will follow the drive. Help the Red Cross.

On Friday last Kenneth Martin had the misfortune to sprain an ankle. The injury was of such a serious nature that the doctor decided to place it in a cast. He is progressing favorably and will be around in a few days.

A crew of men arrived here a few days ago to re-construct the Alberta Pacific elevator which was destroyed by fire on December 28th. They now have the foundation, solid cement and floor about completed. The weather man being considerate is lending them fine days for the work in the open.

A man who had had a little too much drink stepped up to the wicket of the Cowley post office and asked the postmaster if he had a letter for him. When told there was no mail for him, he asked: "Is there any other posh offish in this town?"

A farewell party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Horning was held in the Masonic hall on Wednesday evening when a large number of friends gathered to pay them homage. The early part of the evening was devoted to cards, court whist being played. Honors were won by Mrs. Archie Swart, Mrs. Edward Percival, Frank Plaza and C. J. Bundy. After a sumptuous repast, the honor guests were presented with a magazine stand and end table respectively. Bobby Day, junior, made the presentation speech, which was neatly responded to by the recipients. A lively dance followed for a few hours to music supplied by Mrs. Arthur Tustian at the piano.

A plebiscite on the question of conscription in Canada will be taken shortly.

Pincher Creek will have civic elections on February 9th. Two vacancies on the council, two on the public school board, two on the separate school board and that of mayor are to be filled.

Editor W. J. Bartlett has just completed thirty-two years with The Blairmore Enterprise. This is an unusually long time for any man to be connected with one paper. We congratulate our old friend on getting by in all these years without ever getting shot—although he admits of once being half shot and missing an issue. "Bart" has battled with the elements in winter and summer; he has battled with irate subscribers and he has battled with Tim Buck and his followers, but always came out ahead. The Blairmore Enterprise and its versatile editor will be remembered long after Tim Buck and the Tim Buck boulevard are forgotten. The Blairmore Enterprise is a homey paper, a newsway paper, and with kernels of wit and wisdom sprinkled in here and there to enliven its columns. May its shadow never grow less. —F.J.S. in Cranbrook City.

LOCAL AND GENERAL ITEMS

Nearly one-third the food now consumed in Germany consists of potatoes.

Calgary Royals, a smart junior hockey team, appeared in Coleman on Saturday and Sunday in two matches with the locals. The Calgary gang were coached by Davy Duchak, while Jimmy Joyce cared for the Coleman squad. The teams drew even, Saturday night's game fell to Coleman 4-3, while Sunday's fell to the Royals 3-1.

Isn't it time that the British Columbia government got down to a system of co-operation with the Alberta government in the way of game and fish licensing. British Columbians can come into Alberta and fish or shoot for the same license fare as Albertans have to pay, but we in turn go to our neighbor province and pay more than double. It is not fair.

A picture appearing in last week's issue of the Walbran Wright Star showed what appeared to be President and Mrs. Roosevelt. But it actually was President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill. The latter, wearing the new sealskin cap, sure was pictured as a beautiful lady. Even the cigar was missing which is so much disliked by half of one per cent of femininity.

The officers of Victoria Rebekah Lodge No. 7 were duly installed on the night of January 6th by Sister Walker, D.D.P., and her staff from Blairmore. The new officers are: M. Halstead, P.N.G., who was presented with a jewel; M. E. Cornet, N.G. (re-elected); A. Nash, V.G.; A. A. Burns, recording secretary; A. Vincent, financial secretary; R. H. M. Dunlop, treasurer. A turkey supper followed the installation ceremony.

Harmon Rice, editor of the Huntsville Forester, was in Ottawa to hear Prime Minister Churchill, and in his report he tells an interesting story of some of his impressions. He says at one stage of the conference with the newspapermen, Churchill's cigar became dead. Turning to Mackenzie King, he said: "Give me a match, Mr. King!" Premier King, being a non-smoker, had no matches, but a dozen newspapermen rushed forward to meet the emergency. He was asked as to some uncertain phase of the war and his reply was: "I can't say; if you get any information on that point, I wish you would let me know."

HILLCREST HAPPENINGS

A well known resident of Hillcrest passed away in the Pomeka asylum on January 13th in the person of A. Szegedi. He had been in failing health since an accident he suffered in a mine in 1932. He was born in Hungary in 1902, and came to Canada in 1928. He re-visited his native land again in 1931. Left to mourn are his wife, two daughters and one son, all in Hungary; also a brother, M. Szegedi, of Drumheller. The remains were forwarded to Drumheller for burial. A number of friends from Hillcrest attended the last rites.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. E. Carter, on January 19th, a son.

Mrs. R. Anderson has been confined to her bed for some time through illness.

A meeting of the local Red Cross was held in the Masonic hall on Wednesday of last week, when 31 new members were registered. They will form a second group under the leadership of Mrs. Curtulon. Arrangements were made to hold a dance in the Catholic hall on this Saturday night.

The Hillcrest-Mohawk juveniles defeated the Cowley Bronks 5-3 on Sunday. P. Potapoff scored two goals in the first period for Cowley, and Harry Terlecki tallied a goal for Hillcrest. The Hawks started an offensive in the second period, and continued this style till the final whistle. This play resulted in Fred Shelling scoring two goals and M. Colloisimo one. Potapoff again scored for the Bronks. Wing Chan, assisted by Vladis Siga, scored the final tally. The lineups—Bronks Dan Murphy, L. Fortey, H. McKay, N. Smyth, M. Lemire, E. Murphy, H. Klinde and P. Potapoff; Bronks: B. Gryschuk, J. Chan, M. Colloisimo, B. Hollingshead, A. Grande, W. Chan, V. Siga, R. Rossi, F. Shelling, N. Terlecki and J. Fisher.

The physical training classes held a skating party on Monday evening that was much enjoyed. After the skating, supper was served in the Catholic hall.

Better For Close Fighting

New Short Rifle Is Being Issued To British Army

A new rifle, with a needle-pointed nine-inch bayonet with virtually the same mechanism as the standard Lee-Enfield rifle, is being issued to the British Army, it was disclosed.

Experts said the bayonet—7½ inches shorter than those now in use—is a better weapon for hand-to-hand fighting.

SO YOU'RE GOING TO DO A PLAY?

Research by Director

The director will be a busy person while waiting for the play books to come, making notes about this and that and the other thing. Pictures of the period must be looked up (old photos do it) as well as within the last 50 years, of the period in which the play is set; pictures of the furniture, costumes, shoes and stockings, hats and all the other trimmings. Notes covering all these details must be made and on hand to answer questions that are bound to rise during rehearsals.

Stage Equipment

How big is your stage where your play is to be presented? Are the doors and windows in your scenery in the right place? Or must you build new scenery? Or are you going to use draped? Or must you use a combination of painted and scenery? These questions must all be thoroughly discussed and arranged before rehearsals begin. If it is necessary to have a stage, scenery and your doors and windows are not in the right place, then draw a sketch of your equipment to scale and plan your stage settings and furniture, curtains and everything else. I know it will mean a lot of work now—but will likely save grief at a later date.

Stage lighting problems should be considered at this time. If there are any special effects needed or desired, discuss them with your stage manager and give him time to think and work out what you want. I know it will mean a lot of work now—but will likely save grief at a later date.

It may be possible to get your costumer to do a little work on this dress can be borrowed (and changed to fit if need be), where that wig or old hat can be found, where a fan or a pocket watch, etc. Time is a great element in the cost of production. For those who are doing a costume play where bright colors are needed as in "Sunday Funday," make an umbrella of cotton to make the full skirt needed by the girls and make a paste as you would starch for the husband's shirts to add to the fullness of the desire color and when dry, with a paint brush, paint on this mixture with the cloth spread out flat on papers on the kitchen floor. Let it dry and you have excellent material for any colorful costume, either of the Mexican play or for the early English or Spanish court. The starch gives body and under lights, the effect is magical.

Costumes

If you are allowed to practise on the stage during your vacation, you are indeed fortunate. However, many of us have to borrow a living room or an office and push back the furniture and then measure the space as nearly the size of the stage to be used as possible. If not, measure space and use a scale and arrange furniture accordingly. This will prevent you from casting yourself too far when the transition to the stage is made. Two kitchen chairs tied together will do for a couch for two, a box for a sofa, a table, a bench for a bigger table, a shelf for a cupboard, etc. Imagination is sometimes the mother of invention. Nur sed for this week—Mary Ellen Burgess, Box 326, Regina.

REG'LAR FELLERS—The Low-Down

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

THE TEMPTATION OF JESUS

Golden text: For we have . . . one that has been in all points tempted like as we are, yet without sin. Hebrews 4:15.

Lesson: Matthew 4:1-11; Mark 1:12, 13; Luke 4:1-13.

Devotional reading: James 1:12-18.

Matthew 4. Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and nights, he was afterward hungry. And the tempter came and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, command that these stones become bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil took him up into the highest city and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou art the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:

On their hands they shall bear the up, lest haply thou dash them to foot.

Jesus said unto him, Again, it is written, Thou shalt not make trial of the Lord thy God. Again, the devil took him up into an high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; and he said unto him, All these things I will give thee, if thou will fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him; and behold, angels came and ministered unto him.

For Young Composers

Canadian Performing Right Society To Continue Annual Scholarship Competition

Despite the continuance of the war, the Canadian Performing Right Society has decided to continue its annual scholarship competition for young Canadian composers on the same basis as that of 1941. Within the past two years it has been recognized everywhere that music is a great tonic to public morale. The emotional condition which now prevails is also a stimulus to creative effort among young people of inborn musical talent.

The 1942 competition will be the ninth of these events. Despite the outbreak of war in 1939, entries since submitted have been steadily increasing in quality, and several prize winners of past years have continued their activities on an expanding scale of excellence. What has been said before may be sincerely repeated: when the Canadian Performing Right Society initiated the plan it started a movement that has grown beyond the scope of the competition itself. Within the past four years original works by Canadian composers have been heard in radio and concert programs with ever-increasing frequency. This development has been markedly national, as evidenced by the fact that in the four previous competitions seven of the nine previous compositions have been represented in the prize lists.

As in the past this year's contest is limited to entrants still under 22 on March 1st, 1942. Aspirants are invited to send in two manuscripts, one of which should be a song. The major award will be a scholarship (value $750) at the Toronto Conservatory of Music; supplemented by three cash awards of $50 each.

The Junior Division instituted last year will be continued. It is open to competitors under 16 on March 31st, 1942, and provides three cash prizes of $25, $15, and $10 in order of merit.

Persons desiring to enter the competition should write at once for application forms and copies of the rules to the head office of the Canadian Performing Right Society, Royal Bank Building, Toronto.

SCIENCE OF NUTRITION

The importance of food and nutrition to a country at war has been constantly stressed by the Health League of Canada. Now the League learns with pleasure that fifteen leading U.S. food manufacturers have formed a Nutrition Foundation, the first co-operative scientific research laboratory to be created by the food industry.

George A. Mooney, in the New York Times, writes that "the foundation will be operated on a nonprofit basis to distribute freely discoveries in food and diet. The whole science of nutrition in direct relation to consumers will be studied."

Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, who heads the new foundation, explains that "in view of the worldwide urgency of problems of nutrition which will inevitably have to be faced in the coming years, we feel that the launching of the foundation should no longer be delayed. Every day gained in the improvement of food and diet means increased human happiness and effectiveness."

Paul S. Willis, president of the Associated Grocery Manufacturers of America, feels the foundation's formation as an important step on behalf of the whole food industry in its relationship with the public. "There is an unprecedented demand for nutritious food for our civilian population, our armed forces and our allies. In order to make the best possible use of our great supplies, we must continually seek new and pre-serve food to get the maximum nutritive value from it."

Simple Foreight Will Greatly Prolong Life Tires

Wise motorists will meet the restrictions on rubber with precautions against excessive tire wear. By taking thought, they can make the short life of their tires last longer on them. It requires simple forethought, in the way of driving at moderate speeds, having their tires checked periodically, keeping them properly inflated, and seeing that their wheels are in proper alignment. There is no telling how long it will be before tire sales can be resumed. Lengthening the life of those you already have is up to you—Windover Star.

FIGHT OR WORK FOR FREEDOM

In this third winter we have found that the war's full fury has yet to come. As the line-up of friends and foes becomes suddenly world-wide, as the blackout spreads from coast to coast, Canada braces itself for a mighty effort.

We can size up the task at last. We can see that what has been done was only a beginning, that what remains to be done will take all we have and are. In the tyrant countries everybody fights or works. We know now that we cannot win by doing less. They have made total war. The only answer is to turn their rule against them, for every Canadian to fight or work.

The ranks are closed. The call of national duty has brought quiet response. It is a direct and personal response. There is little talk of class interests, of making the group solid before the nation can be sold. The old arguments can be resumed later on, if the nation stays free—if all the free nations stay free. We have grasped the truth that the nation is not built of the groups and interests which in peace time seem so vital. The nation consists of men and women, and in time of peril these men and women are citizens first. They may be workers or bosses, they may have been makers or takers or fakers, but at this time they are citizens—and that is what matters. It is as Canadians that they march together in a war of people, a war in which they mean, as Churchill has said, "to conquer or die."

We cannot help ourselves by repeating our unreason for the call that has come. But we can profit by looking at things that have held us back and by then refusing to let them hold us back any longer. There have been distractions. Taking victory for granted, some worthy people have given all their thoughts to after-war problems. Others, intent on business as usual, have shown a willingness to divide the bacon when better men have done the hard work of bringing it home. There has been much twaddle about new orders. There has been nagging of hard-pressed statesmen about the civil liberties of traitors. There have been strikes and slow-downs in war industry. We can have no more of such folly.

The men who have put their lives on the altar of patriotism, who have sacrificed their comforts and their comforts with kit and kin for a dollar and thirty cents a day, have a right to expect that we mere civilians will back them up to the limit of our power. As long as that right is theirs, the people they shield have no right to stop the work of providing the things and services they need. Left to themselves, Canadian workers will do their duty. The record shows that every strike or slow-down in our industries has been brought about by organizations which have opposed the Lease-Lend Act in the United States. With the entry of the U.S.A. into the war, the agents of these organizations may be expected to find something to do in their own country—but the great Republic means business and will make them behave. Canada can spare them.

For the new year before us many things may be prophesied, but only one thing is sure. The armed forces of the free nations will be put on a total war footing, and behind them the armorers, the victuallers, and the carriers will be marshaled in line of duty. In our struggle against the fiends who would enslave the world, we will have to make the hard choice; fight or work. There is no other way to save our freedom.—The Labor Review

Norman Francis William Picard, of the village of Bellevue in the southeast corner of Alberta, has been included in the provincial list of notaries public appointments.

Tom McCloy returned to The Pass last week end, and has since been busy trying to bring about a settlement of difficulties between beer dispensers and hotel proprietors.

While authorities down in Ottawa are doing things hurriedly and trying to carry on the war effort to the fullest, Aberhart and his gang want "time" to consider—not the war.

The Duke of Connaught, last surviving child of Queen Victoria, and Canada's governor-general during part of the First Great War, died at Bagshot Park, Surrey, England, on Friday, aged 91.

Government forms and returns are keeping men tied to their desks, in many cases unnecessarily, and bewilder as to what they must or must not do. Oh, well, "war is hell!"—Pincet Creek Echo.

DON'T WAIT

When I quit this mortal shore, and nosey around the earth no more, don't weep, don't sigh, don't ever sob; I may have struck another job. Don't go and buy a large bouquet for which you'll find it hard to pay; don't moan around and feel all blue, I may be better off than you. Don't tell the folks I was a saint or any old thing that I ain't; if you have jam like that to spread, please dish it out before I'm dead. If you have roses, bless my soul, just pin one in my buttonhole while I'm alive and well today. Don't wait until I've gone away.

GRANTS PAYABLE TO PROVINCES FOR LOSS OF TAXES

Ottawa.—Close to $100,000,000 will be required annually from the federal treasury to compensate the provinces which agree to vacate the personal income and corporation tax field for the duration of the war and one year after. Finance Minister Tilley announced.

The minister, at a press conference, released details of the draft agreements being sent to the nine provinces—agreements completed after months of negotiations based on the minister's budget proposals last April that the provinces vacate these tax fields temporarily.

Mr. Tilley said he believed all the provinces would sign after their legislatures had approved the agreements and passed the necessary tax amendments.

Compensation will be paid the provinces, annually, plus "fair need" subsidies to Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Manitoba, and Saskatchewan. The following are the total amounts payable to each province:

Prince Edward Island, $701,943; Nova Scotia, $2,906,430; New Brunswick, $3,650,007; Quebec, $20,704,737; Ontario, $28,961,488; Manitoba, $5,634,740; Saskatchewan, $5,830,471; Alberta, $4,090,218; British Columbia, $12,048,367.

In addition the federal treasury will pay grants to the provinces sufficient to make up the amount by which gasoline tax receipts fall below the totals collected for 1940 as a result of gasoline rationing and other wartime restrictions.

The budget proposal, made as Mr. Tilley raised federal taxes to unprecedented heights, was that the people be freed for the war's duration and one year after from personal income and corporation taxes then being levied by the provinces.

To those provinces agreeing he offered compensation from the federal treasury equal to the amount of revenue collected from the sources to be abandoned during the fiscal years ending nearest to Dec. 31, 1940.

As an alternative form of compensation, he said, the federal treasury would be willing to take over the net debt service actually paid by any province during the year ending nearest Dec. 31, 1940, less the revenue obtained from succession duties in that period.

In addition it was provided that "fiscal need" subsidies might be paid from the federal treasury where need was proven, and that grants would be made to maintain gasoline tax receipts at the level of collections during the fiscal year ending nearest Dec. 31, 1940, in each province.

Under the agreements, Mr. Tilley said, the provinces will undertake not to tax persons or corporations in come earned after Dec. 31, 1940 or to collect any other corporation taxes, which became due and payable after Sept. 1, 1941.

The agreements will continue in force until one year after the end of the war when the Dominion agrees to reduce its tax rates to permit the provinces to re-enter the tax fields which they are being asked to vacate temporarily.

Civilian Casualties In Britons

London.—Thirty-four civilians were killed by air raids on Britain during December, the ministry of home security announced. This figure compared with the toll of 3,793 civilians killed and an additional 5,044 injured sufficiently to be treated in hospital as the result of air raids in December.

For Russian Red Cross

Toronto.—Dr. Fred W. Routley, national commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross, announced the Canadian Red Cross had cabled $100,000 to Britain to be handed over to the Russian Red Cross. Dr. Routley said the money is the first instalment of the $500,000 being raised in Canada for medical relief for Russia.

Officers Re-elected

Saskatoon.—All 1941 officers of the Saskatchewan branch of the Canadian Growers' Association have been re-elected. The officers were returned at the 13th annual meeting held at the University of Saskatchewan in Saskatoon.

More Ships

San Francisco.—Plans of the United States government for ships and more ships for the country's war effort brought agreement from Pacific coast shipbuilders and unions to keep production going 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

Allied Supply Board

Now Believe This To Be A Distinct Possibility

Washington.—Appointment of Donald M. Nelson as director of United States wartime industrial production and a report from London that Lord Beaverbrook, the energetic supply minister, may stay permanently in Washington, lead to belief that establishment of an Allied supply board is a distinct possibility.

Such a board would co-ordinate wartime production of all the united nations. It was taken for granted Canada would have representation on it, because of her position as the third biggest producer of munitions among the united nations as well as her wealth of raw materials.

Nelson unofficially took up his gigantic task with the announcement that he would unhesitatingly order any necessary shakeup in the production organization to get "the job" done. "To make enough war material to beat Hitler and the Japs, and to do it in the shortest possible time."

Nelson's statements were obtained in letters to William S. Knudsen, director of the office of production management, to the under-secretary of war, Robert P. Patterson, and to the under-secretary of the navy, James V. Forrestal.

WILL REMOVE JAPS FROM B. C. COASTAL AREAS

Vancouver.—Of the 23,428 Japanese residents in British Columbia, 5,387 are expected to be regarded as aliens subject to transfer to some other part of the province or to be interned under federal regulations covering the removal of aliens from designated defence areas, it was estimated.

Pending removal of aliens from "protected areas" was announced at Ottawa, but until the areas are outlined specifically the exact number of Japanese involved cannot be estimated. Most Japanese settlements are in the coastal area of British Columbia, however, where the "protected" zones are likely to be established.

Gratification that "Ottawa authorities have taken action on the very disturbing situation in connection with aliens on the Pacific coast," was expressed at Victoria by Premier Hart, who said he was sure "when all the details are made known they will be satisfactory to the public."

Dr. George A. Ishiwara, president of the Japanese Canadian Citizens' League, which advocates renunciation of Japanese citizenship, said here he thought the government "has taken the best possible step to safeguard our Pacific coast. The Japanese community as a whole are grateful to the government for their sensible attitude."

Assistant Commissioner C. H. Hill of the Royal Canadian Police said the force was ready to carry out the removal but had not yet received no specific orders. He said that for registration purposes any German or Italian-born person who is still a national of one of those countries or who became a Canadian citizen after Sept. 16, 1922, has been regarded as an alien, but he did not know whether Japanese would be judged by the same standard.

Of the estimated 5,387 Japanese who would be affected under a similar ruling, 2,395 are the fathers of families. The mothers form a much smaller percentage, most of them having been born in Canada.

Relations Unchanged

Russia Is Still Observing Neutrality

Fact Made With Japan

Kulibayev.—S. A. Lozovsky, Russian spokesman and vice-commissar of foreign affairs, declared that Soviet-Japanese relations are unchanged, still being based on the neutrality pact of last April.

His press conference, first since war broke out in the Pacific, was attended by both Japanese and correspondents of Allied nations. His comment on relations with Japan was in response to a Japanese reporter's question.

He added that negotiations are under way for renewal of the Far Eastern fisheries pact with Japan which expired Dec. 31.

Close Vancouver Office

Ottawa.—The Prime Minister's office has announced the government will close the consulate-general of Thailand in Vancouver "in view of the Japanese occupation" of Thailand.

Bombing Adventure

Canadian Pilot Returns Safely To Base After Escaping Capture

Ottawa.—Fifteen million of gas-bombs recently exploded the Canadian between success and disaster for the Royal Canadian Air Force crew of a big Royal Air Force bomber, the air ministry said.

The Canadians were Pilot Officer Ian Holdas of Saskatoon, Sergeant Air Gunner W. H. Bracken of Moose Jaw, and Sergeant Air Gunner C. J. Kearns of Halifax.

On a bombing raid over Germany they were about two miles from the target when, amid heavy anti-aircraft fire which put some 20 holes in their aircraft, one of the engines cut out.

But the Canadians limped on, found their target, dropped their bomb load and then headed for home.

"We realized it was going to be nip and tuck as far as getting out was concerned," said one of the crew of three pieces of oak and developed a nice meal for us," Sgt. Kearns reported. "But we made it with 15 gallons left."

Aircraft Defences

Those In Malta Unparalleled In World Say British Troops

London.—The British Broadcasting Corporation quoted British troops who have just arrived in London from Malta as praising the aircraft defences of that Mediterranean strong-hold.

The men said that to Jan. 10, the fortress had undergone 1,200 air raid alarms and that more than 80 enemy aircraft had been shot down. Island casualties were said to be few.

The soldiers described the Malta anti-aircraft defences as unparalleled anywhere in the world and said that every time enemy aircraft appeared the sky was lit by a "sheet of steel."

The Axis losses were put at more than 4,500,000 tons, the Royal Navy, the Fleet Air Arm and the R.A.F. have sunk or damaged more than 100 Axis ships averaging 4,000 tons each.

ORDERED ACTION

U.S. Asiatic Fleet

Has Been Safely Removed From Base At Manila

Washington.—Admiral Thomas C. Hart has succeeded in bringing the entire United States Asiatic Fleet, with its warships intact, to comparatively secure waters from which to wage his fight against the Japanese. It was ascertained.

Belief spread here that the fleet of seamen involved in evacuating the naval base at Cavite, in Manila, by only 30 miles from the Philippines capital, would one day be ranked one of the notable naval episodes of the war.

The navy's sole comment has been the laconic communiqué issued immediately after the fall of Manila that "all ships and naval personnel were removed from the Manila-Cavite area prior to enemy occupation," along with all records, equipment and stores, and that industrial facilities were destroyed.

Not only was the whole combat force—cruisers, destroyers and submarines—removed from the untenable base at Cavite, but also the "feet train." The "train" was the slow-moving collection of supply ships, tankers, cargo vessels, tugs, tenders, repair ships and other auxiliaries essential to the fleet.

Where the fleet now is located, or whether it has found a new base, are questions which the navy does not answer.

That it probably is in the Netherlands East Indies area was indicated by the recent arrival of Admiral Hart, officially confirmed, somewhere in that archipelago. A navy spokesman previously had said it could be "assumed" that the Asiatic fleet was co-operating with Netherlands and British units in Far Eastern waters.

AIR FORCE PILOTS HAVE ARRIVED FOR BURMA DEFENCE

LED QUEBEC UNIT

"STEPPING OUT" IN A NEW UNIFORM

Here is an exclusive picture of the new "walking-out" uniform which it has just been announced at National Defence Headquarters, will be issued to all Canadian soldiers early in March.

This picture of "what the well-dressed young Canadian will wear" shows a man in a well-tailored suit, with his hands in his pockets, walking with his best girl. Although he will continue to wear battle-dress for flight and training, his few "hours of ease" will find him very smart in a jacket and slacks of khaki serge, brown tie, black socks and low shoes. And, like Similar in appearance to the well-dressed officers the uniform has four pockets, regulation pleats on the breast pockets and patch pockets at the sides and a cloth waist belt. Regimental badges will be worn in the lapels. The branch of the Master General of the Ordnance, responsible for distribution and production, anticipates that the life of a "battle-dress" will be more than doubled as the result of the issuance of a second uniform.

RECRUITS FOR AIR TRAINING CREWS MAY BE PROBLEM

Ottawa.—Provision of aircrew recruits for the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan is "going to be the biggest man power problem we'll have in Canada," Air Minister Power said at a press conference.

As yet, however, there is no shortage of suitable recruits.

The minister added that large educational and physical rehabilitation schemes under air force auspices and designed to bring men up to aircrew standards may be necessary.

Canada's air strength on the Pacific has been increased since Japan entered the war, he said. More men and equipment have been sent to the area. He also said the new air base in Labrador is in full operation but declined to give any details.

The school of the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan in Canada can be stepped up to handle United States trainees if the American authorities want to send them here, he said. While there have been informal discussions, there are no decisions yet on United States participation in the plan.

Speaking of recruiting, Maj. Power said the force was getting all the ground crew it wanted because "unless the air crew gets its new uniforms the men prefer to come to us."

"Aircrew recruiting is going up remarkably well," he continued in a serious tone. "We still have a good reserve ahead of us but I am not saying we always will have it."

"It's going to be the biggest man power problem we will have in Canada—getting the men we need for aircrews."

"We are going to have to go in for rehabilitation, bringing men up to our physical standards and educating them to our education standards because the output of the high schools in Canada is not enough to meet our needs."

While it might be possible to lower the education standard for aircrew recruits (now matriculation) men simply had to have a sound knowledge of mathematics in order to be able to use modern aircraft instruments.

"We want everybody who is physically fit and educationally fit, between the ages of 18 and 25," Maj. Power declared.

In order to get the number needed, now that Americans are all going to their own schools and into their own services, it might be necessary to make the air training plan into "a real university" instead of just a "university of the air" and provide instruction in mathematics and other subjects for large numbers of recruits.

Voluntary Discipline

Expect Control Over Civilians As Of Soldiers In The Field

Ottawa.—Labor Minister Mitchell, addressing a joint meeting of the national war board and regional boards, told employer and employee representatives that the government's price and wage control policy called for voluntary discipline by civilians comparable to that expected of a soldier in the field.

The meeting, attended by provincial labor ministers and other members of the regional boards, was the first of a series of conferences intended to discuss and clarify details of the plan under which the boards will enforce the wartime wage control policy.

The policy, Mr. Mitchell said, assured uniform treatment for all wage and salary earners and was primarily intended to "keep the ship on an even keel" in the face of a threat of inflation.

"We expect discipline and demand it from men who go to battle, and I don't think it is too much to ask the civilian population to voluntarily indicate discipline. I have no doubt in my mind of the answer to that request."
